Dear Ms. Farkus,

The Office of the Governor received your email on January 18, 2019, in which you requested, pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"), W. Va. Code § 29B-1-1, et seq., access to and copies of the following records:

All files on or related to the West Virginia Teacher's Strike that lasted from February 23-March 3, 2018.

This office has completed its search for and review of the public records in its custody that fall within the scope of your request. Our office sent an email on January 28, 2019 outlining that we had no internal documents, however we did have constituent emails that were sent to an account for the Office of the Governor. The total number of pages associated with those documents was 1,382 and the total amount required for the copying of the documents is $266.40 pursuant to W. Va. Code § 29B-1-3(e). Protected personal information will be redacted. Please submit a check in this amount, made payable to the Office of the Governor and mail to Office of the Governor Attn: Brian Abraham 1900 Kanawha Boulevard, East Charleston, WV 25305, where upon receipt, we will electronically send the copies to you, as you requested.

You are advised that FOIA affords you the opportunity to seek injunctive or declaratory relief in the Circuit Court of Kanawha County, West Virginia. Please let us know if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,
